Eastside
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Position Title: Director of Students
Date: August 2026

Reports To: Executive Director
Hours: Full Time

Eastside Overview

Eastside Presbyterian Church is a growing congregation in Greenville, South Carolina, committed to helping people find and follow Jesus.

Our vision is simple: Good News. Great Joy. All People.

- Good News – We believe people are transformed by the gospel of Jesus Christ. Everything we do is centered on faithfully proclaiming God's Word and helping people know and follow Jesus.
- Great Joy – We desire to cultivate a church marked by deep joy, genuine hospitality, authentic community, and lives increasingly shaped by God's grace.
- All People – Because Jesus moved toward us, we move toward others. We long to see people of every generation encounter Christ, grow as disciples, and join God's mission in Greenville and beyond.

As a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in America (PCA), we are committed to the authority of Scripture, historic Reformed theology, joyful worship, and making disciples who make disciples.

Job Summary

The Director of Students provides vision, leadership, and oversight for Eastside's ministry to middle and high school students. This person will help students find and follow Jesus by building meaningful relationships, teaching God's Word, equipping volunteers, and partnering with parents in the discipleship of their children.

As a full-time member of the ministry staff, the Director will also serve in additional areas of church ministry based on their gifts, passions, experience, and the evolving needs of the congregation. These responsibilities will be determined collaboratively with church leadership, allowing the Director to contribute meaningfully to Eastside's broader mission of helping people find and follow Jesus.

Primary Responsibilities

Student Ministry

- Provide vision, leadership, and oversight for Eastside's student ministry (middle and high school).
- Plan and lead Sunday school, weekly student gatherings, Bible studies, retreats, mission opportunities, and special events.
- Build intentional relationships with students and families through regular presence, discipleship, and pastoral care.
- Recruit, train, encourage, and shepherd volunteer leaders.
- Select and oversee curriculum, teaching, and discipleship resources that align with Eastside's mission, vision, and theology.
- Partner with parents to equip them as the primary disciplers of their children.
- Ensure all student ministry volunteers comply with Eastside's Child Protection Policy.

Additional Ministry & Staff Responsibilities

- Serve in additional areas of church ministry based on personal gifts, passions, experience, and the needs of the congregation, as directed by church leadership.
- Assist the pastoral staff in shepherding the congregation through discipleship, visitation, congregational care, and other ministry opportunities.
- Collaborate with church leadership to identify and develop opportunities for meaningful ministry involvement, including connections, missions, outreach, and other areas.
- Participate in Sunday worship services, weekly staff meetings, ministry planning, and the broader life of the church.
- Assist with churchwide events, special initiatives, and ministry projects as needed.
- Work collaboratively with staff and church leadership to advance Eastside's mission and vision, demonstrating flexibility and a willingness to serve wherever needed.

Job Requirements

- A vibrant and growing relationship with Jesus Christ.
- A love for the gospel, the local church, and making disciples.
- Agreement with the theology, mission, and vision of Eastside Presbyterian Church.

- A passion for discipling middle and high school students.
- A relational, shepherd-hearted approach to ministry.
- A team-oriented spirit marked by humility, initiative, and teachability.
- Strong leadership, communication, and organizational skills.
- A willingness to serve beyond student ministry according to personal gifts and the needs of the church.
