

Full-Time Pastor of Missions: Lead the congregation of PCPC to faithfully engage in our mission of extending the kingdom of Jesus Christ to Dallas and to the world by overseeing PCPC's Missions Ministries and equipping our members for evangelism. Lead and oversee the PCPC Missions Ministries (City Missions, World Missions, Church Planting, and PCPC@WORK). Develop tools, resources, best practices, creative venues, and opportunities for evangelism. Work well with other PCPC ministries to cultivate a consistent culture of evangelism. Preach and teach, as required, on Sunday mornings as well as in other ministry venues. College degree and seminary degree required. Must meet all requirements set forth in the Book of Church Order. Eight plus years of pastoral and staff leadership experience necessary. Must be ministry driven and have the education required by PCA. Missions and/or church planting experience highly desired. Please email your cover letter and resume to careers@pcpc.org, or if you have any questions, please email careers@pcpc.org. The job description can be viewed at www.careers.pcpc.org.
