

High School Director

Apply by sending your resume to Michael Puckett at mpuckett@sevenrivers.org*

Expectations:

- A growing relationship with Jesus.
- A heart for students. A vision and mission to see students know Jesus.
- 50 hours a week (some weeks less/some weeks more)
- Desire to attend student events like sports, theater and graduation.
- Seeks feedback and pushback – desires to learn.
- A team-player: wants the team to succeed. Sets the team up to succeed.
- A problem solver, willing to try new things and get creative.

Discipleship

- Contact work with students after school.
- Counsels students by diving into their stories and holding space in their hurt.
- Organizes seasonal Bible classes for students before church.
- Works with local community to send students out into local missions and service projects.
- Organize small groups for students where they are led by a member of the church.
- Equips members of the church to do the ministry.
- Shepherd team members, volunteers and student leaders.
- Lead meetings that encourages and challenges team members.
- Lead youth group, retreats, camps and mission trips.

Parents

- Communicates weekly with parents via phone calls, emails and letters.
- Shepherds parents by providing resources, parent meetings and parent retreats (conferences).
- Equips parents to disciple their children.
- Give parents a goal for their children then support them and offer structure.
- Encourages parents to be involved in the church and Student Ministry.

Volunteers

- Recruit volunteers and use them based on their gifting.
- Organize and lead volunteer meetings.
- Delegate responsibilities to volunteers and actively support them.
- Encourage and challenge volunteers to grow in their faith and to share their faith. Offer volunteers challenge, support and structure.
- Organize fellowship for volunteers and their families.
- Shepherd volunteers by providing resources, leadership retreats and counsel.
- Express frequent gratitude for volunteers through gifts, serving their family, loving their kids, writing heartfelt letters, praying for them, asking about their needs and meeting with them.