

Purpose of the Position:

We want our people in Community Groups because we believe that life change happens best as people experience the gospel in a community of redemptive relationships. Are you the type who loves meeting people in the lobby and connecting them to the community of God's people? Do you carry a notecard around so you can write down the names of people you meet on a Sunday? Do you dream about seeing people mature in the gospel and grow as leaders in the church? At Covenant Life by connecting people to Christ, to one another and to service for God's kingdom. The Director (or Pastor) of Small Groups and Discipleship (DSG) will be a primary part of connecting people to groups where they can grow in grace.

Responsibilities:

- 1. Connecting to Groups: Covenant Life Church believes that life change happens best as people experience the gospel in community. The DSG will work to connect people to one another and to the church. Tasks include (but are not limited to):
  - Oversee relationship-forward spaces (such as Community Groups) and content-forward spaces (such as Bible studies), including help start new ones and encourage leaders of groups
  - Look for new people (and established people) to connect to groups where they can experience community with God's people
  - Model for the congregation how to engage and to draw others into groups
  - Follow up with people after they visit a group to see if it is a fit or to recommend a different group for them to visit
  - Be in and part of the Sarasota community in a way that aligns with personal gifts and passions so as to meet new people and share the gospel with the lost
- 2. Discipleship: The DSG will lead the adult discipleship initiatives of the church. Tasks include (but are not limited to):
  - Schedule Discipleship Classes (and teach at least once/year) for edification and growth of the congregation
  - Review materials and curriculum for alignment with our Reformed doctrine and our particular mission and vision as a church
  - Equip and encourage the men's ministry team, including serving as the staff liaison to the team
- 3. Leadership Development: Part of maturing disciples is equipping them to lead and serve. The DGE will relationally engage with people in the congregation and equip them to lead in the various ministries of the church. Tasks include (but are not limited to):
  - Encourage, equip and appreciate group leaders as they seek to make disciples
  - Identify, recruit and train potential future group leaders
  - Model a gospel-centered and gospel-fueled approach to leading and discipling
