

Director, Men's Bible Studies

Who we are:

The greatest influences in our schools today are the men and women with the title "Coach." They are a focal point on any campus. Coaches are role models for hundreds of kids each day. Thus, these men and women are the mission of the COACHES HONOR ministry.

Founded in 1991, this ministry has grown to encompass more than just coaches. We have vibrant and thriving Bible studies for men and women who may not be called "Coach," but still have great influence in their homes, businesses and communities. The heartbeat of COACHES HONOR is to share the Good News of the Gospel with anyone and everyone. We are excited about our continual growth outside of schools and campuses.

Position Overview:

The Director, Men's Bible Studies is a critical role in the COACHES HONOR mission and ministry.
