

Associate Pastor Job Description

Hillcrest Presbyterian Church is seeking an Associate Pastor. We are a 150+ member congregation in rural Western Pennsylvania uniquely situated near three college campuses. Our weekly Sunday activities include Sunday School, Morning Worship, Evening Worship, and Grove City College Fellowship. We have prayer meeting and youth programs on Wednesday evenings.

We are a congregation who is deeply committed to the faithful and expository preaching of God's Word, as this is the foundation from which all other ministries in our church will grow and flourish.

To that end, we desire an Associate Pastor who will work alongside a Senior Pastor so that both may lead our congregation in the faithful study and application of Scripture with a commitment to Reformed Doctrine. We further believe that an indispensable role of an Associate Pastor is to lovingly shepherd our congregation with discipleship training and spiritual mentoring, provide pastoral care and visitation, and have a heart for each person in the congregation from all walks of life.

There are areas of growth that we would like an Associate Pastor to develop in our congregation, and those areas include the following:

- Mentoring and discipleship within the congregation
- Routine visitation to members of the congregation, with a priority on those who are sick, homebound, or hospitalized.
- Leading and teaching youth and children's ministries
- Encourage more involvement in the area of local and global missions, and mentoring in the area of evangelism and outreach in the community

We currently have a thriving ministry at Grove City College, and we would further like to expand this ministry to other local colleges, as well as provide continued support to those young members of our congregation who are currently away in college or working in the community as young professionals. We envision an Associate Pastor who can collaborate with a Senior Pastor spearheading these efforts, with the assistance of the Session and participation of the congregation.

Send a resume, MDF, Christian testimony and Statement of Faith, as well as 2-3 sermons (audio or video links) to: hillcrestpca1975@gmail.com.
