

Music Director Ministry Description

Objective – Why am I here?

The Music Director will coordinate the music ministry of G&P with primary emphasis on the musical portions of our weekly corporate worship. We greatly value impassioned worship within the context of our theological convictions and stylistic preferences.

Strategy- What is needed to accomplish my objective?

- A deep and abiding relationship with Jesus, manifesting in a passion for worship.
- Be in substantive agreement with the reformed theology of Grace & Peace.
- Agree and support our stylistic preferences in musical styles.
- Highly committed to excellence in lyrics and musical quality.
- Strong musical and vocal skills.
- Strong organizational and communication skills.
- Recruit, train, equip, and direct musicians, vocalists, technical/creative artists in the production of weekly worship services and periodic special events.
- Assist in the development of an annual budget for music and arts ministries.
- Cultivate a gospel-oriented culture among the musical team both in practice and in worship.
- Must possess a strong work ethic being a self-starter and able to persevere through difficult seasons.

Tactics- What action needs to be taken to accomplish strategy?

- Work closely with the Lead Pastor to construct meaningful worship services
- Participate in regular coaching sessions with the Executive Director to develop priorities and leadership acumen. The Worship Director will report directly to the Executive Pastor.
- Continually research and implement new songs rich in theology and according to Grace & Peace preferences.
- Schedule and direct weekly practices for the team.
- Coordinate team members including sound and tech team members for weekly services.
- Coordinate the purchase and maintenance of A/V.

Note: Depending on the candidate's qualifications and availability this role may be classified as either a Part-time or a Full-Time position, at the discretion of the Executive Director working in conjunction with the Session of G&P.

This position may also include additional responsibilities according to the gifts and skills of applicant.

Priorities- What is most important now?

- To be determined in conjunction with Executive Director and Lead Pastor.
