

Job Posting Pastor of Young Adults & Outreach

Job Overview: New Covenant Presbyterian Church (“NCPC”) is seeking a Pastor of Young Adults and Outreach. This is a new position for our church, and we are excited for a new pastor to shepherd young adults and to extend our reach to the lost and broken in Aiken with the hope of the gospel. As our new pastor, you would oversee spiritual formation of our young adults, actively connect visitors to our church, and spearhead our local and international outreach efforts.

Reports to: NCPC’s Senior Pastor, Brad Rogers.

Primary Areas of Responsibility

- Oversee spiritual formation for young adults, including singles, couples, and families with children living at home.
 - Cultivate new avenues of ministry with pastoral staff.
 - Create strategies for involving more young adults in small group ministries.
 - Provide pastoral care to young adults.
 - Work with pastors to develop and train covenant group leaders.
 - Teach adult Sunday School on a regular basis.
 - Develop a leadership pipeline for new officers, in partnership with pastoral staff.
- Evaluate, develop, and oversee NCPC’s efforts to engage visitors.
 - Assist members in developing evangelistic relationships with the unchurched.
 - Create and maintain necessary structures to connect people to NCPC.
- Explore and develop new opportunities for NCPC to serve Aiken and its immediate surrounding communities.
- Promote missions and foster congregational involvement in missions outside of Aiken.

Other Areas of Responsibility

- Assist in worship leadership.
- Shepherd designated individuals and families.
- Preach occasionally (4-8x per year).
- Participate in presbytery and General Assembly.

Personal Qualifications: The ideal candidate will have an intimate relationship with Christ, a love for his church, biblical insight and discernment, a humble and teachable heart, a love for people, and a team mindset. It is also expected that you would:

- Cultivate spiritual, intellectual, emotional, and physical health.
- Have a regular practice of prayer, Bible reading, study, and personal devotions.
- Nurture relationships with your wife and children (if applicable).
- Be ordained or ordainable in the Presbyterian Church in America.
- Foster friendships with other pastors.

Job Posting Pastor of Young Adults & Outreach

Our Mission: We, as a church, seek to make mature disciples of Jesus in Aiken, South Carolina and around the world. We trust the ordinary means of God's grace to transform hearts and lives for his glory and for the good of this world.

Our Strengths and Areas for Growth: We recognize the excellency of Christ and have a strong desire for biblical, gospel-centered preaching and teaching. Our members care well for one another when they are in need. We enthusiastically participate in a variety of ministries, and we generously support missions at home and abroad. We are mindful that we have room for growth, and we are hopeful that you may help us with the unique gifts that the Lord has given you. We recognize the need to improve in the areas of evangelism, service, fellowship, and missions. Additionally, we aim to foster intentional relationships where we encourage each other to know and follow Christ.

Why apply? Aiken is a growing, bustling, small town with a storied history and an environment where families can grow. At NCPC, we are energized by our rising number of young adults and our growing commitment to expand our ministry to them and to our community. Lastly, our staff enjoy working together and spending time together outside the office.

If you think this position might be a good fit for you, we would like to hear from you.

To apply: Please send a cover letter and resume to pastor.search@NCPCAiken.org. We encourage you to familiarize yourself with our church and our vision by visiting our website at <https://www.ncpcaiken.org/index.php>. You may also refer to our PCA Church Profile for our demographics, and to our detailed job description for more information about the role.