Assistant Youth Director
For Girl's Discipleship

The purpose of this position is to assist the Director of Youth & Family Ministry in personally evangelizing and discipling female middle school and high school students and to oversee discipleship to female students.

Qualifications

- Have a genuine love for students and the ability to relate to girls from 6th to 12th grade.
- Have an understanding of youth culture.
- Have the knowledge and ability to help organize and implement strategy for ministry.
- Possess some experience in student ministry.
- The candidate for this position should be a female.

Responsibilities

- Direct youth ministry communications.
- Maintain up-to-date rosters of all students.
- Adhere to policies and procedures regarding child protection, budgeting, and reporting.
- Meet weekly with the Director of Youth & Family Ministry.
- Help plan, execute, and attend all youth programs, retreats, and events.
- Lead one small group with the goal of evangelizing, equipping and discipling girls.
- Meet with female students, interns, and leaders for one-on-one discipleship and shepherding.
- Assist in recruiting and training ministry volunteers.
- Assist in outreach to students and increasing student involvement.
- Spend a minimum of 15 hours in the LPC office (Monday-Thursday, 8am-5pm).
- Perform other duties at the discretion of the Director of Youth & Family Ministry.

Supervision

- Reports to the Director of Youth & Family Ministry.

Spiritual Qualifications

- She will have a testimony of salvation and, by word and deed, will demonstrate a mature walk with Jesus Christ.
- She will demonstrate a commitment to personal spiritual growth.
- She will have a good Biblical understanding with doctrinal soundness.

Hours

- This is a full-time, salaried position.
- Requires evening and weekend work and occasional travel.

Please contact Taylor Gordon (tgordon@lexingtonpca.org) with questions or applications. To apply, please submit your resumé with a 1-page philosophy of ministry.