

Worship Leader

Palmetto Hills Presbyterian Church (PHPC) is seeking a talented Christian to lead our congregation in worship through music. The ideal candidate would enjoy being in God's presence, so that their public worship flows from a healthy private worship which is passionate and joyful.

Qualifications

- Must, above all, be a believer and worshipper of Jesus Christ, growing in grace and the knowledge of Christ while living a life consistent with the gospel message.
- Must be a proven pianist, guitarist or other lead instrumentalist as well as lead vocalist, qualified to lead the singing of songs and hymns in worship:
  - Traditional hymns, contemporary worship songs (ie, Getty, Townend, Papa, Boswell), and introducing Indelible Grace Music to the congregation.
- Must be able to collaborate, embracing the PHPC philosophy of ministry and music, giving and receiving feedback from pastors and session.

Responsibilities

- Lead the congregation to joyfully worship God through music on Sunday mornings.
- Select and prepare congregational worship songs in coordination with the pastors.
- Select and prepare prelude, offertory, and communion music: either performing these yourself or arranging other congregational or guest artists.
- Secure qualified guest worship leaders when not present for Sunday morning worship.
- Cultivate and train musicians from the congregation to use their gifts in leading the congregation in worship.
- Recruit and audition music team members.
- Lead and coordinate music rehearsal, as necessary.
- Delegate responsibilities on the music team based on talent, numbers of musicians required or preferred, and/or availability.
- Lead worship in 2-4 other services per year outside of regular Sunday worship (ie, Maundy Thursday, Christmas Eve, Thanksgiving Service)
- Prepare and coordinate special musical services around the Christmas and Easter service utilizing outside musicians.
- Regularly meet with the pastors for planning and coordination.
