

Position: Pastor of English Language Ministry (Full-Time)

Hawaii Central Presbyterian Church (HCPC), located in Honolulu, Hawaii, is looking for a full-time Pastor of English Language Ministry to teach, guide, and shepherd Living Stones (an English Language Ministry of HCPC).

HCPC, the mother church, is a Korean speaking congregation whose members are first generation immigrants from Korea. Most of the members of HCPC are bilingual (Korean and English).

Living Stones, the English speaking congregation, is a growing group of around 20 adult members, and about 30 youths (grades 6-12), born here in the US, worshipping in English.

The Pastor of English Language Ministry functions as one of the assistant pastors of HCPC. He will be under the leadership of the senior pastor of HCPC who came to the US at an early age, fluent in both Korean and English. The responsibilities of the Pastor of English Language Ministry will be two-fold: caring for the youth group, and caring for the adult members.

To help yourself discern if this is a ministry position suitable to your gifts and calling, please see the requirements below.

- weekly preaching for Living Stones Sunday worship
- lead weekly Friday Night Bible Studies for youth
- attend weekly staff meeting
- coordinate and plan with the Living Stones Admin Team
- recruit, train, and lead volunteer teachers serving the youth group (currently five volunteers)
- plan retreats and other scheduled activities
- regularly communicate with the PTA (youth group)
- willing to perform other duties as needs arise
- at least one year of cross-cultural ministry experience

Send application materials to hawaiicpc@gmail.com

- cover letter
- resume/CV with photo
- two references

- links to two sermons
