

Redeemer

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Assistant Pastor of Youth and Family

Position Overview:

The Assistant Pastor of Youth and Family is called to serve the Lord and the community at Redeemer Presbyterian Church, Sugar Land, by:

- Maintaining and developing a comprehensive, biblically based ministry to youth and their families
- Providing oversight and support to the community group ministry.
- Assisting the Senior Pastor as needed in general ministry responsibilities.

Responsibilities:

Youth and Family Ministry:

- Maintain and implement effective bi-weekly student ministry activities (e.g., Christian education and fellowship)
- Meet with students to mentor and disciple them in their faith
- Plan, lead, and organize youth missions trips or retreats as needed
- Meet regularly with our youth core team in praying and planning for the youth ministry activities
- Recruit teachers and youth workers as well as provide them with continued training and encouragement
- Attend monthly staff meetings, along with other members of the RSL staff, to coordinate and integrate the student ministry program with the overall plans and activities of the church
- Coordinate with Senior Pastor and children's minister to develop and maintain effective ministries for all age groups within the congregation

Community Group Ministry:

- Provide pastoral leadership and support for the community groups and community group leaders.
- Recruit and train new community group leaders.
- Provide support and direction for particular interest groups, like the women's group and men's group.
- Develop and maintain a library of recommended community group resources and bible study guides.

General Ministry:

- Preaching & worship leadership as requested by the Senior Pastor.
- Flock oversight and community group involvement.
- Provide counseling as needed.
- Assist with pastoral visitation in coordination with the Senior Pastor.
- Presbytery and denominational involvement.
- Coordinate with Senior Pastor to continue to develop appropriate outreach strategies.
- Under direction of Senior Pastor, help teach seminars/classes as needed (i.e. membership class, introductions to Christianity, etc.).

Qualifications:

- Passion for serving the youth and commitment to their spiritual growth
- Must live out the principles found in Galatians 5:22-26, 1 Timothy 3:1-7, 1 Peter 5:1-4, and Titus 1:6-9
- Understands that it is a privilege to serve the Lord in vocational ministry and that those who serve God on staff at RSL are expected to embrace a high biblical standard of conduct and lifestyle both public and personal
- Shows a desire to work hard within the church to further its reach and influence in the community
- Thoughtful to the diversity of culture found within RSL and the Sugar Land community
- Excellent interpersonal skills and ability to work well with staff and volunteers
- Good organizational skills and proficient in technology
- Hospitable to member families and visitors alike
- Comfortable recruiting youth and adult volunteers
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to lead music preferred
- Masters of Divinity degree from an accredited seminary
- Ordained or ordain-able within the PCA.

Classification:

The salary level for this position is a full-time salary

Application:

Please submit your resume and a completed application form to Rev. Janas Caruncho at janas@redeemersl.org