

Position:

Assistant Pastor for Living Redeemer:

Trinity Reformed Presbyterian Church (PCA), is looking for an assistant pastor for our mission church in Grand Junction, Colorado. Living Redeemer is a mission church that is under direct supervision of the session of TRPC, and as such the assistant pastor will fall under the direct supervision and authority of TRPC's session.

Grand Junction is a city of around 140,000 people and is in great need of a strong confessionally reformed church. The church consists of around 30 people every Lord's day. Trinity supports Living Redeemer financially to the best of our abilities, the salary we currently offer is around $50,000 a year, which means the next pastor, just like the previous one, will have to serve as a "tent making" pastor.

There is, however, opportunities for the church to grow. The emphasis we seek from the next pastor needs to lie on the faithful preaching the Word and administration the Sacraments every Lord's Day. In addition to this, the assistant pastor will have to be engaged in seeking to reach the community to the best of his abilities as time permits. We are searching for a candidate that has a shepherd's heart, with strong Reformed convictions and takes no exceptions to the Westminster Standards as our system of doctrine.
